Statement of Position 290-472-8694-044

In the Headquarters Special Operations Branch, under the general supervision of a Business Taxes Compliance Supervisor III, a Business Taxes Compliance Specialist performs the more difficult and non-routine tasks received from field offices involving bankruptcy and collection cases and issues. The work reaches across multiple tax and fee programs. The tasks require a greater breadth and depth of experience and knowledge than required at the Business Taxes Representative level. Examples of non-routine tasks include: preparation of more complex bankruptcy claims for large amounts of money involving large corporations with many closely related subsidiaries; preparation of referrals to the Attorney General or out-of-state counsel involving bankruptcy cases in which the agency has to protect the State's interests; preparation of replies to complex tax and bankruptcy issues; review and support attorneys in preparation of legal documents.

Candidate must be able to perform the essential job functions (*) with or without reasonable accommodation.
